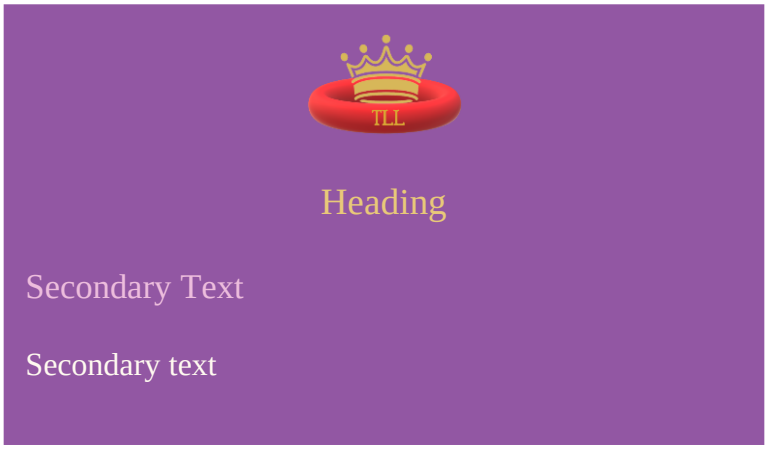
Website Theme



I chose purple as the background colour for the site because I wanted to use a theme of royalty. This decision was influenced by my first name, Tianna, which is Greek for “princess.”

The website’s logo is meant to depict a crown sitting on a cushion. The inscription on the cushion, “TLL”, is the acronym for my name, Tianna Lue-Lim.

I used shades of gold and yellow for my site details and most of my headings to complement the purple and to add to the theme of royalty.

For the secondary text (non-headings) and a small number of headings, I used floral white and a light pink. These colours are easy to read against the purple background. I also used them because full gold and yellow lettering may feel overwhelming to read, so it was best to limit them to only highlights and headings.
